DENISE COTE, District Judge:

Between June 2020 and the present, Willie Brown has filed three motions for compassionate release pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A). All three motions cite as a basis for release his age, his health, and the risks of incarceration during the COVID-19 pandemic. In Orders of June 29, 2020, October 9, 2020, and March 29, 2021, the Court denied the motions. On April 25, 2021,¹ Brown sent a letter to the Court titled "Re: Compassionate Release of Willie Brown Case No. 1:04-cr-00113-DLC."² In his letter, Brown again requests compassionate release based on his age, his health, and COVID-19.

The Court construes the letter as a motion for reconsideration of its prior Orders denying compassionate release, and the motion for reconsideration is denied. In addressing Brown's three prior motions for compassionate release, the Court considered Brown's age, health, and COVID-19 risk and concluded that the relevant factors did not weigh in favor of release. The April 25 letter does not provide a basis to reconsider that conclusion. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the April 25, 2021 request, which is construed as a motion for reconsideration, is denied.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Clerk of Court shall mail Brown a copy of this Order at his current Bureau of Prisons address and note mailing on the docket. The Clerk of Court shall also mail a copy of this Order to:
